Sub: - Proposal for Online Remittance- "e-MRO"

As you aware that all remittances of Defence receipts being made through Military Receivable Orders (MRO) (IAFA-507) in this Department. It is also observed at the time of reconciliation of MRO that Depositor is not filling in all information as required in MRO correctly. Due to deficiency of information, our field offices/concerned Controllers are facing hard problems in adjustment of MROs in their register/ Ledgers. A proposal of State Bank of India has been under consideration of this office to enable units/ Individuals to deposit the money through e-MRO by a secured receipt gateway of SBI. The proposed gate way is available on SBI website (<http://cmp.onlinesbi.com/MOD/home- go to Goto e-MRO i.e. CMP portal & https://www. Onlinesbi.com- go to State Bank Collect>). There shall be two modes for depositing the amount into Government Accounts through e-MRO. One will be e-Mode by which the format of e-MRO will be filled in and payment will be made through Debit Card/ Credit Card/ internet banking etc.. Another mode will be manual by which the e- challan will be generated and payment shall be made through cash/bank draft/ cheque etc. at bank branch. A copy of proposal of SBI on e-MRO discussed during the meeting is forwarded herewith for your ready reference. It is therefore requested to examine the proposal through SBI Website and your considered comments / views on the proposal may be forwarded to this office by retune fax along with following information: -

(i) Total receipt of MRO during the month with the further bifurcation thereof as unit wise, individual wise (Army personnel and civilian personal separately), and other Govt. Department likes Cantt. Board, Central School. Army School, MES etc. showing the number and value of MROs separately.

(ii) Numbers and value of MROs received during the month showing the various nature/ type of MROs separately.

(iii) Issues involved in accounting of MROs, if any.

This has the approval of Jt. CGDA (A&B).
