

Notice for hiring of services of Script writer for documentary film on DAD

Defence Accounts Department intends to make a documentary film on its activities through Army Film Development Centre, New Delhi. Services of professional Script writers both in Hindi and English are required for the purpose.

All interested professionals are requested to apply indicating their intent duly indicating preference to take up work in Hindi or English or both.

The applications should be supported with detailed CV giving educational qualifications, work experience, salient assignments handled and other related information.

The applications may be sent by email only to "trgdiv-brar.cgda@nic.in" latest by 20th August 2018, 1200 hrs.

Search cum Selection Committee