References are being received from some of the PCsDA/CsDA regarding clarification for appearing in Preliminary Test, April 2016 for those candidates who have already availed four chances after qualifying the Preliminary Test. In this regard, please refer Para-3.2 of HQrs. office letter cited under reference wherein it has been explicitly stated that as per SAS Rule 6 and 14(b) the maximum chances for appearing in SAS Part-I and Part II examination will be only four for each part. It is therefore clarified that a candidate who has availed four maximum chances of SAS Part-I examination after qualifying Preliminary Examination (Test) held in past, are not required to appear again in Preliminary Test, April 2016. Further additional chances after exhausting/availing four chances may however be considered by the CGDA as per merit of each case for future SAS Part-I Examinations.
