As I demit office today as CGDA, I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the entire Defence Accounts Department for their support and cooperation during my tenure. Some important initiatives were taken during this period with special emphasis on e-governance in various aspects of the functioning of the department. The response from the officers and other personnel in the department to meet the targets was overwhelming and we achieved significant progress in a short time. I also managed to visit a number of offices in the country which provided me a fresh perspective of issues at the field level and it was a thoroughly educative experience. I will always cherish the period spent in the department as CGDA.

I wish the department all success in the future and hope that it continues to strive for excellence.

(SHOBHANA JOSHI)

Controller General of Defence Accounts
