Subject: Observance of "Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (National Unity Day)" on 31st October, 2019.

Reference is invited towards captioned subject. A meeting under the chairmanship of Union Home Secretary was held to discuss the modalities for celebrations of Rashtriya Ekta Diwas on 31.10.2019.

2. During the meeting following were given special emphasis:-
- Although the event is celebrated every year, this year, it has been desired that both visibility and scale of the event should be significantly higher, with a special focus on novelty;
 - Adequate media-buzz should be created from 15th October onwards;
 - Post abrogation of Article 370, it is desirable to undertake certain events with special focus on J&K.
3. It was noted during the discussions that last year the M/o Defence had mobilized its sub-ordinate entities including the Armed Forces, Coast Guard, Defence Estates, MES, BRO, NCC etc. to undertake various activities such as for participation in 'Run for Unity', pledge taking, march pasts etc. 300 ex-servicemen had also participated in the 'Run for Unity'.
4. This year, it has been expected that the Ministry will endeavour to scale up the level of these activities to celebrate the occasion in a befitting manner. Furthermore, new and new activities such as reading of Fundamental Duties, quiz competition, organizing prabhat pheris in Sainik schools & other educational institutions run by the Armed Forces, organization of various events by DPSUs etc. could be undertaken.
5. It is, therefore, requested that steps may please be initiated urgently to celebrate the Rashtriya Ekta Diwas in a befitting manner and adequate publicity may be given to the events undertaken.
