R.O. 66—In exercise of the powers conferred by the President, the provisions of the Constitution, and in supersession of the Indian Defence Accounts Service Rules, 1938, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the Indian Defence Accounts Service, namely:

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules shall be called the Indian Defence Accounts Service Rules, 1938.
2. (2) These rules shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
3. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (a) "Government" means the Central Government.
   (b) "The Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission.
   (c) "Duty posts"—Duty posts are mentioned in Schedule-I to the rules.
   (d) "Schedule"—Schedule means Schedule-I, II & III attached to the Rules.
   (e) "The Service" means the Indian Defence Accounts Service.
   (f) "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" shall respectively have the same meaning as in Clause (24) and (25) of article 366 of the Constitution of India.

(2) "Other Backward Classes" shall compreh ends the castes and communities notified by the Central Government from time to time.

(3) "Examination" means the Civil Service Examination for recruitment to Central Services Group A and Group B.

(i) "Departmental Promotion Committee" means a Committee constituted to consider the promotion of officers of any grade as indicated in Schedule III to these Rules.

3. Constitution of the service.—(1) There shall be constituted a Service known as Indian Defence Accounts Service consisting of persons appointed to the Service under Rules 5 and 6.
   (2) All the posts included in the Service shall be Group A posts.

4. Grades, authorised strength and its revision.—(1) The authorised permanent strength of the various grades of the Service on the date of commencement of these rules, and the number of posts in each grade and the pay scales attached to them and the special conditions of service attaching to them shall be as specified in Schedule-III to these Rules.
   (2) The President may make such alteration in the strength of a grade as deemed necessary from time to time subject to any general or special orders that may be issued by the Government.
5. Members of the service.—(a) The following persons shall be members of the service, namely:—

   (a) persons deemed to have been appointed to duty posts under rule 6;

   (b) person appointed to duty posts under rule 7.

   (2) A person referred to in Clause (a) of the Sub-Rule (1) shall be a member of the service in the appropriate grade applicable to him from the date of such appointment.

6. Initial constitution.—(1) The Service shall consist of persons appointed to duty posts under Schedule-I and the officers so appointed shall be deemed to have been appointed to the respective grades at the Initial constitution of the Service.

   (2) The regular continuous service of officers mentioned in sub-rule (1) in the respective corresponding grades referred to in the publication of these rules shall count as qualifying service for the purpose of seniority, promotion, pension and pension.

7. Further maintenance.—(1) Initial recruitment to the Service after commencement of these rules shall be made in the following manner:

   (i) By direct recruitment.—By direct recruitment in the Indian Police Service on the basis of results of the Civil Services Examinations conducted by the Commission in accordance with the rules notified for the purpose of any other scheme of examination that may be notified by the Government in consultation with the Commission from time to time in this regard:

   Provided that the number of posts authorized to the service from time to time.

   (ii) By promotion of Officers from Group 'P' Services.—

   (A) By promotion of Senior Accounts Officers in accordance with rule 10:

   Provided that the seniority of promotions shall not be at any time exceed 3.5% of the total posts authorized to the service from time to time.

   (B) By promotion to the posts in the Junior Time Scale and above in the Service shall be made:

   (a) by promotion from the officers in the senior grade(s) in accordance with Schedule-II.

   (b) by deputation in accordance with rule 11, provided that the vacancies cannot be filled in the manner as specified under clause (a) above or when the deputation is necessary as a result of an ‘Exchange Scheme’ in operation among the various services.

8. Seniority.—(1) The seniority of members of the Service appointed to any grade in accordance with rule 5 at the time of Initial constitution of the Service shall be governed by their relative seniority obtaining on the date of commencement of these rules, provided that, if the seniority of any such member had not been specifically determined on the said date, the same shall be determined in accordance with the rules applicable prior to the commencement of these rules.

   (2) The seniority of officers, who are appointed to the Service after the commencement of these rules, shall be determined in accordance with the principles mentioned below:

   (a) seniority of persons recruited on the basis of results of the Civil Services Examinations conducted by the Commission in any year to the post in the Junior Time Scale shall be fixed in accordance with the rules applicable with reference to the marks obtained in the Civil Services Examination and the performance of the candidates in the Training Course. For this purpose 35% of the marks obtained in the Foundational Course and 65% of the total marks obtained in the Main Examination shall be added to the General Knowledge Examination. The persons who have obtained, aggregate shall rank above persons with less aggregate.

   (b) Provided that, if two or more candidates secure equal marks in the Main Examination, their seniority shall be determined by their date of birth.

   (c) Provided further that any position in promotion, on the basis of earlier selection shall be above the person appointed for the basis of initial selection.

   (d) Officers appointed to the Service in terms of provisions of rule 10 shall be given two years' seniority in seniority vis-a-vis the officers appointed in the same year through competitive examination.

   (e) Among the officers appointed through the competitive examination in a particular year and the promoted officers selected to that year after allowing weights in terms of subsection (a) above, the latter shall be placed on the basis of the seniority and the person selected for promotion to the such grade, those promoted on the basis of earlier selection shall rank senior to those promoted on the basis of subsequent selection.

9. Promotion.—(1) Every officer on appointment to the Service, either by direct recruitment or by promotion to the Junior Time Scale and above, in the Indian Police Service, as the case may be, shall be on probation for a period of two years:

   Provided that the Government may extend the period of probation in accordance with the instructions issued by the Government from time to time.

   (2) On completion of the period of probation or any extension thereof, a directly recruited officer, shall, if considered fit for permanent appointment, be confirmed in his appointment on the recommendation of a duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee, the composition of which shall be made known to the Government in consultation with the Commission. As regards an officer promoted to the Junior Time Scale, if the officer is considered fit for continued appointment to the Service, an order shall be passed by the appointing authority that the officer, has successfully completed the probation and that the Government may discharge the directly recruited officer from the Service, or revert the promoted officer to the post held by him prior to his appointment in the Service.

   During the period of probation, or any extension thereof, as the case may be, the Government may, if it deems fit, after consulting the Departmental Promotion Committee, the composition of which shall be made known to the Government in consultation with the Commission, direct the directly recruited officer to attend further training courses.

   Provided that, regard being had to individual cases, the training will be governed by the instructions issued by the Government in this regard from time to time.
10. Recruitment by promotion.—Recruitment by promotion to the posts in the Junior Time Scale of the Service shall be made by selection on merit (with due regard to seniority) from amongst Senior Accounts Officers (Group 'A' Graded) in the pay scale of Rs. 6000-12,300 with five years (combined) service in grade of Senior Accounts Officer/Accounts Officer on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee, the composition of which will be as shown in Schedule-III. The eligibility of officers from the feeder grade shall be determined in accordance with provisions of Notes (1) and (2) below Schedule-II. The number of vacancies to be filled up by promotion will be determined in accordance with proviso to rule 6(1/6).

11. Appointments by deputation.—The Government may take on deputation, for specified periods, officers of the same grade and pay scale from Central Services Group 'A' for holding posts in the Defence Accounts Department in Junior Time Scale and upto SAG level.

Note 1.—The Commission shall not be consulted for selection of officer(s) for deputation from the other Group 'A' Services.

Note 2.—The period of deputation in the Service shall be two years initially, extendable up to 3 years.

Note 3.—Officers appointed in the Service on deputation shall be eligible for deputation (duty) allowance in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time.

Note 4.—If an officer who, after selection for appointment on deputation to the Service, is posted to any post carrying any special pay/special allowance, he will not be entitled to such special pay/special allowance but will draw only the deputation allowance permissible under Note 3 above.

12. Conditions of service.—(i) Officers appointed to the Service shall be liable to serve anywhere in India including field service in or out of India.

(ii) The conditions of service of the members of the Service in respect of matters for which no provision is made in these rules shall be the same as applicable, from time to time, to the officers of Central Civil Services in general.

13. Disqualification.—No person

(a) who has entered or controlled a marriage with any person having a wife or

(b) who having a spouse living has entered into constuction a marriage with any person shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied with the grounds for which the officer is disqualified under the foregoing provisions, permit such an officer to be appointed, after giving such assurance as it may require to the satisfaction of the Government.

14. Power to relax.—Where the Government, in the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of officers.

15. Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall affect the provisions relating to the rules with respect to any class or category of officers.

16. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government who shall decide the same.

17. Resignation matters.—In regard to matters not specifically covered by these rules, or regulations or orders made or issued under or by special orders, the members of the Service shall be governed by the regulations and orders applicable to the officers of Central Civil Services in general.
