2. The point wise clarification/advice on the issues raised therein is as under –

S. No.	Point raised	Clarification/Advice
(a)	Can IT Hardware be procured under Fall Clause as per Para 7.18.1 of DPM 2009? If so, till when (Month & Year) is the fall clause valid in case the vendor agrees to supply at the same rate.	With the introduction of GeM, Rate Contract is gradually being phased out and renewal of most of the RCs has been stopped. Further, most of the IT Hardware are available on GeM. Thus, it would not be advisable to procure IT hardware under Fall Clause as per Para 7.18.1 of DPM, 2009.
(b)	Is the fall clause valid for those items that are included in the GeM.	Since, RCs of those items which are included in the GeM has now been stopped, fall clause would not be valid for those items that are included in the GeM
(c)	Can the Competent Financial Authorities (CFAs) be ordered to make all purchases from GeM in case the desired items are listed on GeM.	Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, has issued an amendment in the General Financial Rules and has inserted Rule 141-A in the GFR vide OM dated 6th May 2016 allowing use of Government e-Market place (GeM) for Govt. buying.
(d)	In case an item is in DGS&D Rate Contract and GeM, then is it necessary to purchase from DGS&D.	Presently mere 9000 products are available on GeM. Items that are now available on GeM will not be brought on RC.
(e)	Whether DGS&D will enter into Rate Contract for IT Hardware and if so when Rate Contracts will be finalized and notified.
